UPCOMING EVENT: Navigating the Rutgers Digital Asset Library

Taking place Thursday, June 29, 2023 at 10:00am, the Office of Communications will be hosting this event online, facilitated by Jane Hart, Photo Specialist, University Communications and Marketing.

The Rutgers Digital Asset Library is an asset management system powered by Merlin One, contains thousands of Rutgers-related and general images and is a source of high-quality photography for use in Rutgers communications. A growing collection of video assets is also a vital library component. Be sure not to miss this event so you can learn more and find out how to utilize this resource.

Marcus Bourbon, Regional Recruiter, Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Admissions

Favorite Comfort Food?*

Jerk Chicken Mac and Cheese.

Favorite part about your job?*

I get to be a part of a major decision that will change a student's life. There is a story behind every application.

Inspiration?*

Talking to the underrepresented, understanding their concerns, and working to help them at the grassroots level keep me moving.

Favorite thing about spring?*

Spring somehow makes me want to express the joyful and optimistic side of myself, to show off my best side, to dress up, step out and smile for all the world to see.
